1. Bringing your family member together during your first entry to Malaysia using the student VAL is STRONGLY NOT RECOMMENDED. You may apply / renew a Dependent Pass for your immediate family member (Parents, Spouse and Children only) only after you receive your Student Pass. Due to the strict document requirements which could cause delay in the application, you may bring your dependents to enter Malaysia AFTER you have fulfilled all the document requirements. Any consequences such as overstaying will be on your own responsibility.
2. If you are submitting a document that is not in English or Bahasa Malaysia, this document must be accompanied by a full translation into English that can be independently verified by EMGS. The original translation must contain:
  - a. Confirmation from the translator or translation company that it is an accurate translation of the original document
  - b. The date of the translation
  - c. The full name and signature of the translator or of an authorised official of the translation company; and the translator or translation company's contact details.
3. Upon approval, Immigration will issue your dependents with a Long Term Social Visit Pass (LTSVP) for a maximum duration of 12 months at a time. The LTSVP will only be valid for as long as the student has a valid student pass. The application is subject to approval by the Malaysian Immigration Department. Please note that Immigration reserves the right to request for any additional documents.

4. EMGS Rules and Procedures

- All postgraduate students enrolled in Public and Private Universities are eligible to apply for dependant passes on behalf of their families. (Full-time programme only)
